Oahu's First Tree Lighting Ceremony of Season kicks-off at Tripler Army Medical Center

Honolulu – On behalf of Pacific Regional Medical Command and Tripler Army Medical Center, Commanding General Maj. Gen. Carla Hawley-Bowland cordially invites the public to attend Tripler's Holiday Tree Lighting Ceremony Dec. 3 at 5:30 p.m. next to the Oceanside entrance of Tripler.

The ceremony will include entertainment by the Voices of Tripler and other local performers; remarks by the commanding general and presentation of awards for the best designed Holiday card; the presentation of the command and colors; then the commanding general and a pre-selected volunteer will do the honors of lighting the tree; and finally Holiday caroling will begin to let Santa know it's time for his arrival.

In the event of inclement weather, the ceremony will be at the Kyser Auditorium, located just inside the Oceanside entrance of Tripler.
