FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Appointment lines to health clinics undergo upgrade

TRIPLER ARMY MEDICAL CENTER-- As reported in last week's Hawaii Army Weekly, the Tripler Army Medical Center and Schofield Barracks Health Clinic central appointment line, 433-2778, is undergoing major changes.

“While we are actively working to remedy the inconvenience caused, and working toward providing easier access to care at TAMC and SBHC, caller patience is appreciated,” said Maj. Aristotle Vaseliades, chief of Tripler’s Clinical Support Division. Until all upgrades are complete, patients should call 433-2778 to schedule or cancel all primary care appointments at both locations.

Patients calling the Family Advocacy Program (433-8579) and the Army Substance Abuse Program (433-8700) at Schofield Barracks should continue calling these clinics directly.

When the central appointment line updates are complete, they will be published in the Hawaii Army Weekly and on the Tripler website: www.tamc.amedd.army.mil.
