While National Nurses Week drew to a close on May 12, Tripler Army Medical Center's labor and delivery nurse 1st Lt. Jordan Gammons exemplifies how nurses add a personal touch in caring for their patients every day. Gammons visits her patient Nicole Eash several times a week to brighten her day with some country music. Eash, whose husband is with the 25th Infantry Division at Schofield Barracks, is awaiting the birth of twin daughters in three to four weeks. "It's relaxing," Eash said. "I think it makes them happy too. I can feel them moving around." U.S. Army photo by Leslie Ozawa.
